

Lowboy Truck Driver

The Lowboy Driver is responsible for safely hauling materials such as aggregates and other materials and/or equipment that are needed for job. The driver will also be required to work manual labor, perform maintenance on equipment and work with a crew as necessary.

Essential Responsibilities

- Ability to read and understand all permit routes and provisions
- Transport oversize, overweight equipment and construction materials safely and timely
- Work with Dispatchers to plan routes to meet delivery schedules
- Ability to drive through all weather, road and traffic conditions
- Must be available to work varied shifts and schedules

Required Skill/Knowledge:

- High school diploma or equivalent
- Must possess a valid Class A CDL driver's license with clean record
- 3+ years of related experienced required
- Ability to pass drug, alcohol & background screening as required by DOT

If you feel that your skill set closely matches the description of the position, then please apply through the application link and include your resume and contact information.